SAINT MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

From the Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr, Archbishop of Cincinnati

Once a year, we are asked to support the Church's mission by making a financial gift to the Catholic Ministries Appeal. I use the pronoun we intentionally, because responding to the Catholic Ministries Appeal is truly an opportunity for us to be united in our mission – to be the Church universal. I've seen countless examples of the good work we are doing in our individual parishes, but there are some things we can do much better together.

The six vital ministries funded by our Catholic Ministries Appeal gifts are not just items on a balance sheet: they are ways we give thanks to God, always and everywhere. I've made my personal gift in response to this year's appeal, and in this week's mail you'll receive a personal invitation from me to join as generously as you can in this shared act of gratitude.

If you have never given to support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, I respectfully ask you to consider doing so. If you have given in the past, I join all those whose lives your gift has touched to say Thank you, and I encourage you to continue your generosity and commitment. Together, we have so much to be thankful for, always and everywhere. May God richly bless you with his presence throughout this season of grace, and always.

Food Collection in Thanksgiving

In honor of Hazel and Leo Blanchard's 43 years of service, our parish is taking up a "thanksgiving" donation for FISH this weekend, February 27 – 28. Please donate non-perishable food items or $10 Eikenberry SCRIP coupons in gratitude for all they have done in service for others. Food items may be left at the foot of the cross near the baptismal font. Eikenberry SCRIP may be placed in the basket at the SCRIP table.

On Sunday, February 28 at the Brethren Retirement Community's Chestnut Village Center, FISH is hosting a reception from 2 – 4 pm to honor Hazel and Leo Blanchard and celebrate their extraordinary contribution to our community. All are invited.

Deacons: Ministers of Service
Transitional and Permanent Deacons (4th)

Since Vatican II (1962-1965), the Roman Catholic Church has restored the diaconate "as a proper and permanent rank of the hierarchy." (Vatican II, Lumen Gentium #29) The Eastern Churches have always maintained it. The permanent diaconate, which can be conferred on married or single men, is for men who make a lifelong commitment to serve as a deacon. In our archdiocese, men who have completed the Lay Pastoral Ministry Program (or its equivalent) can apply for admission to the Deacon Formation Program. As they discern the call to the diaconate, they gather every other weekend at Mount St. Mary's Seminary for three years of formation and study.

The transitional diaconate is for men who intend to become priests, thus transitional deacons must be single men. Seen before Vatican II as a "brief stepping stone" to priesthood, the transitional diaconate has also been restored so that men preparing for priesthood ordination would become deacons and exercise diaconal ministry for several months before becoming priests. In our archdiocese, men discerning a call to the priesthood enter a five-year program of formation and study at the seminary and are normally ordained deacons about one year before they are ordained priests.

On Saturday, April 24, Tom Graber of our parish will be ordained to the permanent diaconate.

Lenten Parish Mission

We will be welcoming Father Robert Weiss, CP to lead our Parish Mission. It will truly be a week full of opportunity to enrich our Lenten preparation for the celebration of Easter! He will speak each evening from Sunday, March 27 - Wednesday, March 31 at 7 pm. Confessions will be available during the Parish Mission.

New This Week Diabetes Day

Wayne Hospital is hosting a Diabetes Day to provide education to individuals with diabetes. Diabetes Day will be at the Hospital on Saturday, April 10 from 8:30 am to 12 noon. Along with speakers there will be numerous displays by companies serving the diabetes community. For more information or to register, call 547-5750.

Yes, You Have to Take Math

"If one of your kids would say, 'You know, Dad, math is boring. I don't want to go to math class anymore,' would we even consider saying to the child, 'Oh, honey, you're right, math is boring and so you only have to go to math class through the eighth grade and then no more math for you'? Of course not, but something has happened in us Catholics over the last 40 or 50 years so that the faith component in our kids' lives has become optional," says Sean Reynolds, interviewed in the April family issue of US Catholic (www.uscatholic.org).

Reynolds, director of youth and young adult ministry for the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, points to the dismal showing of Catholic teens in the Nation Survey of Youth and Religion. Catholic young people were found to 5 to 25 percentage points lower than their conservative or mainline Protestant peers on indicators such as whether they read the Bible, pray, and are involved in youth ministry or religious education.

The good news? "Parents have the most significant impact on the faith of young people," says Reynolds. "The more that kids are barraged with information from the Internet, from media, and from electronic devices they're plugged into, the smaller the circle of voices that they trust.

"What would it be like," he asks, "for your sons and daughters if, instead of hearing the Today Show when they wake up in the morning, it was quiet and you were sitting on the couch with a candle lit and Scripture in your lap, praying and meditating? What would it be like if your son or daughter saw you doing Christian service regularly and not just because you have to as a parent to get your kid there? I call it living faith out loud...living it openly at home so your young people catch it, learn it, ask about, grow in it. That's how faith gets in them." Taken from At Home with Our Faith.

We welcome new members to join our parish community. If you are new, please call the parish office to register.

Please notify the parish office if you change your address, change your phone number or e-mail or plan to move out of the parish. A phone call or e-mail will keep our records updated and eliminate unnecessary postage and paper. It will be very much appreciated.
